

Q: Is Bayside the new Mecca for Portland foodies?

A: All signs point to yes.

Fork Food Lab is one of many businesses transforming Bayside into a hot, new drinking and dining destination. The shared commercial kitchen offers high-end cooking equipment, storage, and cleaning staff, so members can focus on their comestibles. Fork also has a tasting room where you can always find gelato and munchies du jour. Want to put your foodie business in the path of patrons? Let's discuss it over a bite.
